German Shepherd Dog League – NSW

Sanction Show – 8 June 2019

Judge: Mrs Melissa Adamson (SA)

Judge's Summary Report

It was a good day for showing – it started with a bit of fog and was slight damp, but as the day progressed whilst it wasn't warm it was good weather for the dogs and it didn't rain. The Club's hospitality was lovely and I was extremely well looked after. Exhibitors and members were friendly and it was an enjoyable day.

There were 85 entered – 20 LSC – 11 LSC Dogs, 9 LSC Bitches; and 65 SC – 29 SC Dogs and 36 SC Bitches. 76 animals in total were presented (9 scratched/absent).

The show is also run in conjunction with an Open show at which a Dogs NSW Allbreeds judge officiates at. There was a couple of small holdups between the rings but nothing significant.

Measuring was done on a concrete slab set within the ring. There were a lot of oversize animals, but within the acceptable limits for showing. A couple of dogs did measure higher, but were given the opportunity to be re-measured after the class had been worked, and before the class was finished and all came within size (62/67cm), with the exception of a LSC bitch who was dropped a grading.

Overall quality was very good, with the bitches overall being better than the dogs. There were some short underchests, eyes that could be darker and some round eyes, and a tendency with some animals to high step in front.

My best LSC Bitch and SC Bitch were both from the Intermediate classes. The lovely SC Dog winner was from the Open class the LSC Best Dog was again from the Intermediate Class.

There were some lovely promising youngsters coming through as well.

I'd like to thank Fay Stokes for her Steno'ing and Stewarding and Carol and Matt Morris for their help Stewarding as well.

Thankyou to the Club for the appointment and once again the hospitality shown to me, and to the members for the entries and sportsmanship.

Cheers

MJ Adamson
