MORE DETAILS NEXT ISSUE

Last issue we covered the GSDCA education weekend as hosted by the GSDL NSW at which one of the speakers was the hugely well received Sanne Pedersen. Interestingly Sanne also covered the event for the WGSDCA magazine and it was very pleasing indeed to see that we are all singing from one hymn sheet – the positivity by the brief coming together of these two sections of the breed was and is very clear and gives real hope for progression together.

It is further gratifying for those involved in the league event to note that the attendees from the GSDC Victoria Specialist Show Branch were so impressed by the subject speakers that, keeping in mind the idea was to do similar events in each states – they have invited Sanne, Jo and Melanie to Victoria to replicate their parts of the seminar.

Here below is Sannes observations of the weekend – so positive, considering her initial concerns.

The GSDL NSW look forward to working again with Sanne in the future and maintaining our good lines of communication with the Working Dog Club.

(Our sincere thanks to Sanne and to Lyn Ellerton for providing permission to print Sannes article here.)

BH-VT and ZAP-A Workshop Presentations at the GSDCA Breed Education Weekend March 9-10, 2019

By Sanne Pedersen | Sydney Dogsport Club Inc

The Breed Education Weekend was an initiative by the NBC BSIP Education Group, hosted by the German Shepherd Dog League of NSW (GSDL) and based on the current debate surrounding the implementation of the WUSV World Harmonisation Plan in Australia. As a member of the GSDL and following my introduction to the Australian SV Judge (Show) Mrs. Jo Cathie at the 2018 BSZS in Nurnberg, Jo invited me to run two practical workshops on respectively the ZAP-A Puppy Test and the FCI BH-VT Test as a representative of the WGSDCA Club Affiliate, Sydney Dogsport Club. I accepted the invitation with some level of anxiety due to the ongoing - let's just call it – squabble surrounding the World Harmonisation Plan implementation in Australia.

I suspect at this point there may be some readers asking what I know about the ZAP-A test. Not much – as it is yet to be formally implemented here in Australia, but Sydney Dogsport Club did host a ZAP-A Seminar in March 2018 with the WGSDCA SV Liaison Uwe Stolpe. As a sidenote, being a molecular biologist who works with cancer and how people may be genetically pre-dispositioned to cancer or mental disorders, I do have a personal interest in what the various components of the WUSV Breed Matrix aims to address.

A total of six workshops were covered during the weekend: Saturday, "Introduction to ZAP, playing with your puppy, ZAP test Demonstration", "Unpacking the Breed Standard to understand the way forward" (Breed Surveyor and GSDCA Specialist Judge Melanie Groth & National SV Show Judge, Jo Cathie), "Specialist Ring Presentation of the GSD" (Kylie Zimmerle Expert Handler & Melanie Groth), and Sunday, "Towards BH for Breed Survey", "Breed killers – dispelling the myths on bloat, haemangiosarcoma, aspergillus and the like" and "Fitness & Nutrition – balanced training and nutrition for the GSD Show Dog" both by Dr Karen Hedberg BVSC. There were about 85 attendees on both days.

My anxiety to participate in the Education Weekend was totally unfounded. People went out of their way to make me feel welcomed and I was utterly surprised about the genuine interest in not only the ZAP-A and the BH-VT, but more importantly - to me at least - I felt the audience craving to understand how to engage and play with their dogs. The ZAP-A presentation focused on explaining the difference between temperament (inherited traits) and character (social cultivation | training), instincts, drives, nerves and the intent of the ZAP-A Scheme. The theory was followed by a practical demonstration where Kathi Minton and her dog, Chilli, volunteered to run through the ZAP-A routine. Chilli did a beautiful job not only as a demo dog, but she also managed to remove the 'performance fear' from the audience and before I knew it, we had dogs left right and centre trying out the various exercises. We had some good discussions as to how to expose the younger dogs to the equipment as part of preparing for the ZAP-A test.

The remaining of Saturday was an eye opener for me. I know next to nothing about how a dog is critiqued during show, and as a working person I struggle with show as a sport as what do you do if you have a dog with less desirable conformational structure? There is nothing you can do to fix say a missing tooth, a sloppy ear, over-angulation, too big ears, too light eyes, croup too steep, tail too long etc. etc. etc. As a working person, at least you can go home and train harder on that sit exercise that you missed in the trial. We had a good chat about how this may be one of the reasons why GSDCA struggle to retain new members and whether introduction of BH, ZAP-A (and one can only hope in the future, IGP) perhaps would help retaining members who may not have the best dog for showing.

Sunday kicked off with the BH-VT. The presentation turned out to be quite interactive and the audience had a lot of good questions as to how to start the foundation of the BH-VT. The presentation was, of course, centred around the FCI Utility Dog Scheme, e.g. The IGP Dogsport Scheme. I was pleasantly surprised about how this was received, and I subsequently received many comments along the lines of 'we have been misinformed'. For the practical part I had brought Rixie with me as a demo dog. Those who know Rixie, a.k.a The Schnitzel, knows this dog loves obedience and he seems to know when he is in the spot light.

We gave a quick demo of the BH-VT routine and in the spur of the moment, I asked if somebody wanted to try to handle Rixie with the note that he is ready for his IGP-1 title and hence fully trained in sleeve work. Julie Delriego stepped out and volunteered. Julie seemed so nervous. After a quick rehearsal using Danish commands, she got the ball under the arm and Rixie on the left – and off they marched. The smile on Julie's face and the laughter from the audience made my day! Tony D'Arcy stepped out to have the second go and I will never forget the concentration on his face as he and Rixie weaved their way through the many spectators and several dogs. Rixie doing his thing and never did his focus falter. I am very proud of my Mr Schnitzel who did his very best as an ambassador for IGP dogsport. Subsequent to the demo, the dogs came out in one steady flow for 2hrs to have a go at motivational dog training. It is hard to do much within 10-15 minutes, but I truly enjoyed working with all the dogs that presented and I can only hope I have inspired their owners to start playing and working with their German Shepherd Dogs. The dogs deserve it.

The Sunday finished with presentations by Dr. Hedberg – the first one putting quite a damper on the elated mood that followed the BH workshop as the topic was cancer, bloating and auto-immune diseases. With that said, quite informative and on a personal note, I now know what Kita was suffering from – and it was a relief for me to realise that I made the right decision to give her peace. The last presentation was about nutrition and preparation for showing training. Very timely information due to the WGSDCA National being just 10 weeks away. All in all, a very successful weekend, and the stream of Facebook messages that followed makes me hope that perhaps this was one of a series of similar events that will see a collaborative effort from both the working and show GSD fraternities to benefit the future German Shepherd Dog in Australia.

I would like to thank Mike Harper who came down to capture the moments of the weekend. A special thank Jo Cathie and Mel Groth in persuading me to do the presentations. Thank you to the GSDL Canteen who took a personal interest in making sure I got something to eat. I had a lovely weekend. Thank you.
