

JUDGES REPORT

I wish to express my warmest congratulations to the GSDL for their well-run organisation, professional but friendly atmosphere. You made me feel very welcome and honoured to be able to have the chance to be with you all in Sydney.

With an all-new committee under the umbrella of the new President Jessica Kada, the feeling of enthusiasm and energy was evident. To my stenographer, Leanne Lynch, who was exceptional in keeping up with me at all times, so much appreciated. To both Cassie Booth secretary and Greg Jones show manager, both legends, special thanks. Last but not least to Kurt Morton and Jacqueline Fabian who did the airport runs, it was wonderful to catch up with you both after all this time, with such an exceptional committee I know we are in great hands for the forthcoming National this year, it will be an amazing event that will be well supported by all.

It was a night show commencing at 4pm due to the hot weather, I had an entry of 96 of which 81 were exhibited, with two withdrawn. The grounds were slightly wet but there was no rain so it was perfect conditions for the exhibitors and their dogs. Firstly I would like to compliment exhibitors for presenting their dogs to me in very good condition overall, but surprised with the number of dogs that were not trained to show teeth and stand for the stick. Maybe the club can ascertain training for those who are new members or those who have missed training due to Covid restrictions.

I was very impressed with the very good pigmentation, colour, dark masks, dark eyes and excellent coats. Very good ears, some long tails particularly in the long stock coats. Overall balance and proportions were very good however variation of type was notable particularly in the older classes. I can only assume due to Covid and being unable to travel for choice of stud dogs. Some of the long stock coats concern me greatly who were very short in foreleg and in some cases very bad pasterns with overbuilt forequarters, some with correct and very good hindquarter angulations but in movement fall heavily on the forehand. It is imperative that they consider their breeding program collectively and choose wisely when selecting future breeding partners for improvement on this serious problem.

Size large to very large was noted with a couple of oversize but I think we are improving slowly and must continue to select from our very sound producing bitch lines. I believe there is a register of stud dogs which would prove an invaluable tool for the breed's development. Hence a working committee has been put forward for this purpose by our newly appointed hard working chair person Melanie Groth.

Finally thank you for your wonderful sportsmanship and I wish everyone an enjoyable exciting national. See you all in June.
