

Critiques – June show – Judge Mrs J Brabham (SA)

THE GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG LEAGUE

SATURDAY 3 JUNE, 2023

It was a great pleasure to judge the German Shepherd Dog League (NSW) Open Show on Saturday 4 June 2023. I was impressed with the friendly and professional communication with the Show Secretary and Executive at all times, and the wonderful hospitality given to me on the day. A special thank you to my steno, Leanne Lynch, the two stewards, Tracy and Liz and Jacqueline, who drove me around and looked after me so well. Congratulations to all the Committee and officials, and to all the volunteers working behind the scenes, setting up rings, in the canteen etc. who contributed to the smooth running of a successful show.

With the reduced number of exhibits shown these days, it is very difficult to comment on faults and virtues. Overall I thought the standard of the animals exhibited was very good with some exceptionally beautiful animals shown. It was pleasing to note that size was not an issue and that temperament and pigmentation was very good. There were some high quality young animals exhibited, which augers well for the future of our breed.

Of interest, were the first three placings in the Stock coat Open Dog Class, all quality animals, *SHEZNOVA LUCA AZ, *Ch SHEZNOVA DJANGO AZ and *NIKOBISHUNDE HAAKON AZ as these dogs were all sired by DJAMBO VOM FICHTENSCHIAG (Imp Delu). Another outstanding male was the winner of Best Dog Long Stock Coat, CH CINDERHOF DIAABLO who came from the Junior Dog Class.

The quality in the female classes, both short coat and long coat, was excellent. Of exceptionally high standard was the winner of Best Bitch Stock Coat, *CH VLADIMIR SUPERCALIFRAGILISTIC A Z followed closely by Reserve Bitch Stock Coat, CH VLADIMIR REMEMBER TH NAME. Again two top quality Long Coat Females, Best Bitch Long Stock Coat CH EROICA NOVA and Reserve Bet Bitch Long Coat, CH VLADIMIR TH BEES KNEES.

To those who entered and exhibited, thank you very much. The weather, friendliness and good sportsmanship made my quick trip to Sydney most enjoyable. Thank you all.

Jan Brabham
