Judges Resume – Jan Brabham

My parents had a German Shepherd, “Pal”, before I was born and being an only child, he was my companion. When “Pal” died we went to a dog show and I won my first child handler prize. My parents gave me the choice of going to a private college or having a German Shepherd puppy – they couldn’t afford both. Of course I chose the puppy and that began a lifelong family involvement in German Shepherd dogs. I also met my late husband, Roy, when he later joined the German Shepherd Dog Club of SA

With my parents, we became heavily involved in all aspects of the SA Club. My passion was handling dogs in the show ring but I also handled my own dogs in Obedience trials and Demonstration Teams – all our dogs had dual titles. I was an Instructor for show and obedience classes for many years. We also bred many dogs to become show and obedience Champions, including many Specialist Show Best Exhibit winners, under our “Palomine” Kennel prefix. Later I was a partner with Roy in “Balmead Kennels”.

When Roy wanted to form the National German Shepherd Dog Council of Australia, I worked with him on that very difficult project, and later we ran the First National Show and Trial in Sydney in 1967 in conjunction with the German Shepherd Dog League. We also produced the original “National Review”. I was officially Secretary of the Council for 5 years, at first under my maiden name of “Atkinson”, until we resigned, shortly before Roy’s death.

I became a Panel Judge for Group 5 and also a full Obedience Panel Judge in 1964. At that time I was the youngest Judge and first female Obedience Judge in South Australia. Although I have judged both Obedience and Conformation in most States of Australia, acceptance of appointments has been restricted because of family and work commitments. I have had my Specialist German Shepherd Dog Licence for both Conformation and Obedience for several years and I am also an Examiner/Assessor for Group 5. I am still actively involved exhibiting dogs and judging.

My love of the German Shepherd dog and the improvement and future of the breed will always be important to me. The German Shepherd Dog Council has come such a long way from the humble beginnings, over 50 years ago, with many people giving so much of their time for the betterment of the breed. Let us hope that with younger people interested in the welfare of the breed, and not politics, that the Council will continue to grow and work for the German Shepherd breed for many more years.
